1. ORGANISATION BACKGROUND:

BRLF is an autonomous body established in 2013 under the Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India. It stands out for its unique approach to livelihood development of rural and tribal communities. We aim to transform the lives and livelihoods of the most vulnerable tribal and rural populations across India, nurturing and facilitating civil society action in partnership with the state and central governments. Our focus on livelihoods through natural resource management, watershed development, and climate-resilient sustainable agriculture, along with our emphasis on entrepreneurship, skilling, and financial inclusion, makes our interventions comprehensive and impactful, leading to significant improvements in the lives of rural and tribal communities located mainly in the central tribal belt of the country. However, our geographical scope is pan-India.
